Welcome to the Neitherworld Post Office where every box number is a...BOX number, where every grave thought is a...GRAVE thought, and where the dead letter box is a...DEAD letter box. Send us your comments, your letters, your mail and your FEMALE, if you think we'll like her.

This, as you might have noticed, is the first of a 3-part BEETLEJUICE mini-series that will thrill, chill and, dare we say, kill you with its breathtaking, tearjerking and infinitive-splitting adventure. Turning the lights on the underside of the Neitherworld (How low can we get!) is Beetlejuice in his most daring role. As Elliot Mess, leader of the Unwashables, he is a G-Man (Ghost Man, to the unitiated) like none other before.

What waits you (And BJ and Lydia) is a labyrinthine trail of unthinkable evil, unadulterated crime and unsophisticated sophistry leading to a most spectacular and shocking twist. The carnage, the gore, the grossness ahead will either make you laugh, puke, or utterly decimate us with your criticism. Who really is Mr. Clean? What can be worse than Oilcatraz Island? What does Vice President Quayle, Governor Brown and Oliver Stone have to do with it? Is the late Jimmy Hoffa involved? Did Al Pacino and Marlon Brando ask us to go easy?

These and so many more questions will be answered in the upcoming issues. Issues, by the way, that are sure to make the Godfathers I, II, and III simply old movies that are never to be matched.

It's a crime, someone has suggested, to allow this series. But what a crime, we answered. No Cagney, Bogart or Robinson film of yesteryear, no Elliot Ness adventure starring Robert Stack or Kevin Costner, no "Scarface" with Paul Muni or Al Pacino, no "Godfather" or "Good Fellas" or "Father of the Bride," no "Bugsy" or "Benjy," no "Silence of the Lambs" or "Valley of the Dolls" or "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" bespeaks what is spoken here!

Do we say too much? Or too little? Do we promise enough? Do we ballyhoo? Or do we do the voodoo that we do so well??

That will be judged later. For now, all that we can say, all that we will dare declare, all that we will be willing to shout from every graveyard of the Neitherworld is...

...you will have fun. So come and enjoy it.

Then look forward to the next mini-series in pre-production, even as you read, and presently titled, "Hooray for Horrorwood!"
